Our Unique Approach

Our approach is about creating you. Most life coaching schools focus on teaching students theory and how-to information instead of focusing on the underlying habits and behaviors that are creating their life.

Knowing the information is great, but what we do is teach you how to change the underlying problem. We'll get you in alignment with your true desires.

The truth is that effective coaching is not about knowledge. It's about the vibrational frequencies of what we are. Our target is to create the best life design coaches that really understand the art of change. We call them Change Agents!

Our curriculum includes neuroscience, movement, breath work, and creatively drawing out the whispers you hear about your future.

There are two paths available for this professional training. One, it's all about you and becoming the Real Raw You. And two, you can become a Real Raw You Facilitator and help others design their lives.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Business Owners

Investing in life coaching is a no-brainer for your business. It's a four trillion dollar market - and still growing rapidly. In fact, coaching has been proven to provide astronomical profit return. According to a study from Manchester Consulting Group, the return on investment for companies who paid for life coaching for their employees was over six times the program cost.

Certified Life Design School Facilitator

The awesome thing about coaching is the infinite opportunities for what you want to do and where you want to work. Some of my graduates run their own business working 1 on 1 with clients over the phone or skype - meaning they can work with people all over the world from an office or the comfort of their living room.

Testimonials: What did the Life Design School do for you?

Our students' lives have completely changed. They came to the school knowing they were sick of hiding and ready to play full out, and left ready to take on the world whether in their own profession or by starting a business as a Life Design Coach.

We believe our training will open up a HUGE realm of possibilities, but don't take our word for it. Here's what graduates have to say about our program.

"Thank you Jeneth, for being a trailblazer, a true pioneer, and master of your own soul; a courageous warrior on the path from the head to the heart!"

Thank you for being so generous to share your journey as a guiding light to all walking the uncharted path of the great mystery and reminding us of all the joy contained there.

I am so grateful for your willingness to be who you are and for you sharing your gifts, wisdom and beautiful heart with me and facilitating me on the blossoming of my path.

Yours in sisterhood, love and light!

Alecia Evans | Walk In Sync™ Founder

I had been working out consistently for six weeks five days a week (3 days with a personal trainer). I also dramatically changed my diet to proteins and greens. After all this I had lost only 1 lb in six weeks. Needless to say I was very discouraged.

When I shared all of this on the call with Jeneth, we talked about listening to my body and communicating with my body. I had done this in the past but something in our discussion was cleared on that call.... creating an opening for a clearer connection and dialog for me and my body to communicate.

What I was able to take away is that it doesn't HAVE to be hard to lose weight... I heard and felt my body communicating its desire to lose weight... in the call and the days after my body and mind aligned... I got the message "it can be easy if I choose it"... my body was ready to release the weight... and within 4 weeks of the call I lost 13 lbs!

"Thank you so much for all of the calls and classes you do. Amazing! I am feeling so many shifts!"

I am so thankful for all of the clearing Jeneth has helped me with over the last few years! I am stepping out into my healing business and am so grateful for all she has done to make it possible.

I am also so grateful because every time I try and create a limitation she stops me! Like my "Oh I have two kids and a husband; I can't do this!" Wait Jeneth does and she is!

'Oh I can't write now that I am doing this healing business. Oh well. Bummer.'

'Oh, wait. Jeneth is; she wrote a book!'

Awesome and thank you!
